

True positives are genes that are predicted as essential and whose orthologs are essential in ecogene database of essential genes for E. coli K-12. False positives are genes that are predicted as essential, but are classed as nonessential in EcoGene.